

Ben Turpin

A gifted speaker and author, Ben Turpin is the author of three books and has shared his business experience and personal commitment to enthusiasm with thousands from the platform.

Ben Turpin engages audiences with his personal experience in business growth and relationship building. His expertise comes from over twenty years experience in direct sales, retail, telecom, automotive and network marketing. Ben has taken businesses from start-up to a multi-million dollar acquisitions in under two years. He has been interviewed by numerous business publications including Inc. Magazine.

Ben Turpin works with Fortune 100 companies, entrepreneurs, and chambers of commerce throughout the world to help them retain clients and grow their business through improved messaging and better relationships. He is a relationship expert and business growth specialist.

A natural leader, Ben Turpin trains others to lead by example. Whether at his home church, in the community, or through his coaching and training programs, Ben helps people excel in their chosen endeavor.

In 2005, Ben joined with Glen Gould to form the Inspiration Agents. Together they inspire audiences to excel in personal development, time management, business development, networking and relationship building.

Ben Turpin is the owner of Big Kid Kayaks, a southwest Florida retail store dedicated to the paddle sports enthusiast. He resides in Venice, Florida with his wife Katherine, their three children Gabrielle, Nathanael, and Abigail, and their chocolate lab Dutch.